As coordinator

Stewart hires former mayor

By JIM CARRAVALLAH
Of The Roman Staff

A former Romulus mayor, Hyle J. Carmichael, one of the major contributors to James C. Stewart's successful campaign for mayor in Romulus, has been hired as the city's new industrial coordinator.

Carmichael, who donated nearly $1,800 to Stewart during primary and general election campaigns in the city, was described as "the best qualified local person for the job with his background in government and business."

The new coordinator, former manager of a Manufacturer's Bank Branch in Romulus before his election as mayor in 1971, and presently a real estate broker, assumed his new duties Monday.

He replaced John Chihan, coordinator for the community during the 2-year term of Terry L. Troutt. Carmichael was defeated by Terry L. Troutt when he ran for the mayoral post in 1973.

Stewart cited Carmichael's defeat as the major reason the new coordinator contributed money to the Stewart campaign.

"He contributed and disappeared after the election, so I had to search to find him to ask him about the job," Stewart said.

"I have been seeking the best qualified people around to fill key positions in the government," he added, after announcing Carmichael's hiring. "Hyle did not want to become involved in government again, and I had to meet with him three or four times before he finally agreed to accept the job."

Stewart added that Carmichael's campaign contributions, amounting to better than 10 percent of the campaign funds raised in Stewart's behalf during the election, had nothing to do with his hiring.

"As a banker, an ex-mayor and a real estate salesman, Hyle had the type of background needed to fulfill the job," Stewart said. "The man is well respected in the business community and has many contacts whose help would be valuable in boosting Romulus' economic development."

"I saw no reason to go outside the city to find a person for the job, unless Hyle hadn't taken it."

In addition to Chihan, Building Department Director Howard C. Lethemon and Department of Responsive Government Director Danny Lambert were let go by Stewart during the past week.

Neither position has been replaced, and it appears unlikely that anyone will be hired to take Lambert's place.

The three firings during the week mark eight dismissals of employees hired by former Mayor Terry L. Troutt since Stewart officially took office.

In addition to the three fired last week, a personnel director, three supervisors in the Romulus Department of Public Works and a secretary to the City Council have been fired. None of the positions have been filled permanently.

Mayor promises economic growth in Romulus future

Armed with a new advisor in economic development, Romulus' new mayor promises "economic development which will give the people of Romulus something to look forward to."

Mayor James C. Stewart said he intends to work to improve Romulus' lagging economic development, particularly in the area of commercial development "so that in two years, the people won't have to look for a platform of improvement from me to know what I stand for."

"Romulus has been lagging behind in all phases of development," Stewart said. "It'll be my job to improve that during the next two years, and offer the citizens something in addition to regular city services."

Stewart added that his new industrial coordinator, Hyle J. Carmichael, and the progress on developing a new city master plan will enhance Romulus' status as an attractive community to provide development.

"I'm moving new people in with fresh ideas in an effort to put together an administrative team dedicated to moving the city forward during the next two years," Stewart said. "If I can do what I plan, I won't need a platform for the next election."

A library tradition

The volunteers of the Romulus Public Library pose around their newly-decorated Christmas tree following the library's annual decorating party. Children were invited to stop by the library Saturday to make their own decorations and place them on the tree to mark the official start of the Christmas season in the city. Parents are invited to stop by the Library any day or evening to view their children's work. The work was conducted under the direction of librarian Diane Hazen. — The Romulus Roman photo.

Stewart approves court plan

Plans in the making for the construction of a new 34th District Court to serve five area communities appear to satisfy the new mayor of Romulus.

James C. Stewart, elected mayor of the city Nov. 4, yesterday said he has no objection to the present plans to construct a new court building on land in Van Buren Township under financing by the communities of Romulus and Belleville and the townships of Huron, Sumpter and Van Buren.

"I was brought up to date on the proposal at a meeting involving all the communities and the representative of the Wayne County Road Commission," Stewart said. "I have to meet with the City Council now to bring it up to date and to ask it if the present course is the one which it would like to pursue."

Present plans call for constructing a new building with financing from fines collected through the court.

Cost of construction will be divided among the communities based on each one's state equalized value. Operations of the court will be financed through a "use" of the court by each community.

Officials of the other four communities involved in the court discussions had expressed some concern that Stewart, who defeated Terry L. Troutt, may not agree to the proposal, necessitating further negotiations on a means to finance the building.

Troutt had met with the officials until his defeat in November and was willing to go along with the plans.

Stewart said he would meet with the City Council to show them a resolution suggested for adoption in each community involved in the court construction proposal.

If the council adopts the resolution, then the 5-community task force will explore the possibility of getting land for construction of the facility donated to the 34th District by the Huron Clinton Metropolitan Authority (HCMA). Land south of Huron River Drive and west of Haggerty Road is being suggested as a site for the new court. The land is not being used as a park, even though it is owned by the HCMA.

The HCMA Board of Directors is holding a motion to approve the transfer of the land in abeyance to learn whether the communities involved in the 34th District Court will agree on a means to construct a new building.

Ed officials await bad word; Program, teacher cuts seen

By JIM CARRAVALLAH
Of The Roman Staff

Administrators in the Romulus School District are waiting for final word on how badly state aid will be cut before determining just how badly the school district's curriculum will be hurt.

"The schools would like to know how bad things are before the new semester begins," said Schools Supt. James Garfield. "That way the disruption in the school year will be minimized as far as scheduling."

"But the cutback will mean there will be personnel lay-offs."

"This far into the school year, there are few other options left, when you consider that 85 percent of the district's budget is tied up in personnel."

Garfield added that compounding the lay-off problem for the district is a new state law which requires the payment of unemployment benefits to persons who are laid off the job from school districts.

"It means the district has to lay off a few more people to generate some money for unemployment benefit payments," Garfield said. "And the longer we delay, the worse the problem gets."

If lay-offs are necessitated in the second semester, their numbers will be almost double what would have had to be implemented to save the same amount of money in the beginning of the year, he said.

"The amount which has to be cut will remain the same, while the amount of funds from which it can be cut are being spent to maintain the system," Garfield added. "But I guess the schools are in no worse problem than the state, when you consider the Legislature has to worry about $125 million or more in cuts."

"I've sent letters to the Legislature detailing the problems the district faces with the delay," the superintendent said. "Now it's just a waiting game for us."

ROMULUS — Former Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael, a major contributor to James C. Stewart's successful campaign for mayor in the September primary election and November general election in that community, has been named the city's industrial coordinator. Stewart said Carmichael's "background in city government and business" was the major consideration in granting the job. Carmichael donated some $1,800 of the nearly $14,000 Stewart raised in his behalf during the election.

For salaried workers

PCHA retirement changes

Salaried employees of the Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA) will receive increased retirement benefits because of action taken at the regular monthly meeting of the PCHA Board of Directors.

The plan — known as the 50 percent graded offset plan — is a new approach to pensions recommended to the Authority by the Wyatt Co., a firm which provides consulting services in employee benefits. The new plan integrates anticipated social security benefits with the pension benefits paid into the program by the hospitals.

The net effect is an equitable improvement in pensions that can be anticipated by all salaried employees at the time of retirement.

Employees who had been enrolled in the former contributory pension plan will be given the opportunity to withdraw their contributions plus the interest which has accrued to this point.

Employees who had been enrolled in the former contributory pension plan will be given the opportunity to withdraw their contributions plus the interest which has accrued to this point.

In other action, the board last week authorized the administration to request that the Greater Detroit Area Hospital Council review and comment upon a plan to establish 15 to 30 psychiatric beds at the new Heritage Hospital.

Heritage will be the first hospital in the PCHA system to maintain a psychiatric facility.

The board also was approached by a developer with a proposal to lease or purchase a small portion of the Heritage Hospital site to be used for parking for a new professional medical facility to be constructed adjacent to the hospital site.

The board authorized the administration to proceed with legal counsel in setting up the mechanism for the possible sale of the land.

PCHA owns and operates four hospitals: Annapolis in Wayne, Beyer Memorial in Ypsilanti, Outer Drive in Lincoln Park, and Seaway in Trenton. The Heritage Hospital now is under construction in the City of Taylor and will be opened to accept patients in mid-1977.

Airport Task Force to hear researchers

At the meeting of the Willow Run Airport Task Force yesterday, the consulting firm Stanford Research Institute (SRI) was to have presented a report on possible owners-operators for the airport.

The task force was created by the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG) early in 1975 after the current owner-operator of the airport, the University of Michigan (U-M), made public its desire to retire from the airport business.

air cargo facility. Determination of the recommended owner-operator of Willow Run will mark the end of the task force's role in planning for the future of the airport.

Following a vote on the recommended owner-operator of the airport, the MDSHT and U-M will meet to reach a final decision on the offer of ownership.

The meeting began at 9:30 a.m. at the Van Buren Township Hall.

Mayor replaces consultants

It isn't only administrators who are being brushed out of Romulus government these days.

Two outside consultants, the city's legal firm and engineering firm have been dismissed and replaced by Mayor James C. Stewart.

The city attorney firm, William Munger and Associates, has been replaced by Robert Reese, former assistant corporation counsel for the City of Detroit, and the engineering firm of Morris Levine and Associates has been replaced by the Taylor engineering firm Wade and Trim.

"I was looking for an attorney with good municipal background to advise the community and found Reese," Stewart said when announcing the appointments. "I've been told there is no better qualified person available, considering that the man I selected worked in municipal law for 26 years before retiring from the City of Detroit."

In Wade and Trim Stewart returned the engineering firm which had handled most of the city's chores prior to the 2-year term of Terry L. Troutt.

The Taylor firm dates back to the Romulus Township days in handling the engineering consulting work for the community.

One other firm, the city's planners, Community Planning and Management, has been told it will be kept on as consultants for at least six months.

Stewart said the decision was made to complete work on the city's new master plan, a project begun by the Troy-based planning firm more than a year ago.

"The master plan is important to the development of this community," Stewart said. "It would be counter-productive to change horses in midstream, and end all work on the master plan."

"So I've informed the firm it should continue in the city's employment."

The retaining of the planning firm provides some continuity in the city's industrial coordinator's office, he added.

In addition to handling economic development chores, the coordinator is charged with helping with the planning of the community.

The coordinator for the past two years, John Chihan, has been replaced by Hyle J. Carmichael.

Another union to begin talks with officials

With teacher negotiations lagging in the Romulus School District, another union has opened contract talks with the district.

The Romulus Federation of Para-professional Teacher Aides, affiliated with the American Federation of Teachers, has held its first negotiating session with the Romulus Board of Education.

The 78-person union represents workers who help teachers cover certain aspects of the school curriculum, particularly under federal education programs.

The 2-year-old union is reopening a contract agreed to two years ago on salaries alone.

According to Romulus School Supt. James Garfield, the union has agreed to wait to discuss contract demands until after settlement of the Romulus Education Association teacher pact now in fact finding at the state level.

"We've met with the paraprofessionals, and they've agreed to wait until we know what the true money picture is in the district," Garfield said. "But the teacher talks are going very badly."

Garfield added that although the teachers are in the classroom and "doing a fine job despite the contract difficulties" the lag in settlement has him concerned.

"Anytime we're nearly half-way through the school year without a teacher contract, I think it's bad," Garfield said. "I'd like to get the thing settled."

Both sides in the teacher talks have agreed to go to non-binding fact finding in an effort to more clearly detail where the differences lie in contract settlement.

Garfield said he is hoping the process will help lead the way toward settlement, but indicated he wanted no other third party intervention in the contract talks if fact finding fails.

"I've always been opposed to binding arbitration as a means to settlement, because the people who make the settlements don't have the background to assess the impact of some of their decisions on school districts," Garfield said. "The best way to settle these things is during the give-and-take of contract negotiations."

The fact finder's report on the status of negotiations won't be due until after Christmas, according to Garfield. During that time, the teachers have agreed to remain in the classroom.

If fact finding were to fail, the teachers already have indicated they are willing to go to binding arbitration as a means to reach settlement.

OATHS OF OFFICE — Romulus City Councilman Joan A. Lee and the city's new Council President Pro Tem Robert Martin take their oaths of office during the city's second inauguration ceremonies last week. The ceremonies were scheduled for early December after the original mid-November swearing-in had to be cancelled because of problems over certifying the election results in the city. Although the councilmen took their ceremonial oaths, they actually had taken the pledge of public service Nov. 11. — The Romulus Roman photo.

IN OFFICIAL CEREMONY — Five of the seven Romulus City councilmen are pictured as they vow to serve the public's interest during the next two years. The councilmen are (standing from left) Jimmie C. Raspberry, William Oakley, Beverly McAnally, Fred J. Block and Gervazio Canejo, the new mayor pro tem. Ceremonies were held for the public last week at the Romulus City Hall to make the start of new 2-year terms on the council. Also sworn in were Joan A. Lee and Robert Martin (pictured at right). EDITOR'S NOTE: Unfortunately the photographer used by The Romulus Roman did not get a picture of new Mayor James Stewart being sworn into office. He also neglected to get photos of the clerk and treasurer being sworn in.

Live in apartment? Follow cautions

If you live in an apartment house, you should want to read and reread this article. There are special safety precautions to be observed by women who live in high-rise apartments.

1. Do not ride in the elevator with a person you don't know or one who looks suspicious.
2. List your name in the entrance and the telephone directory as "M. Smith" rather than "Mary Smith."
3. Use the peephole which is installed in the front door before you open the door.
4. The downstairs door is not absolute protection against the unwanted intruder. Keep your door locked and install protective devices in your windows if you live on the first floor.

5. A key cylinder also should be changed if your keys are lost and they are clearly identifiable with you, your apartment or your automobile.
6. A key cylinder should be changed if the apartment was formerly occupied.
7. Never use the washroom in your apartment basement by yourself. Team up with a neighbor.
8. Leave a light on when you know you will return after dark.
9. When you leave your apartment, wedge a toothpick tip between the door and the jamb, then break off the protruding piece. Upon your return, if the toothpick is dislodged, you know someone else has opened the door.
10. Leave a radio or television playing at a normal volume while you are absent.

11. Make use of timers, presetting the starting and stopping time when away.

Ring your own doorbell from downstairs or just before entering your abode is suggested, the theory being that this will give any possible burglar ample opportunity to escape, and prevent possible violence when he is confronted by the residents.

Never rush into dark rooms without reasonable cautions; before closing and securing that apartment door, take a quick look around to determine if there could be an uninvited guest hiding somewhere inside. In case there is, the door still is open for a hasty retreat.

Ryan meets needs

By BOB BERG
Panax Lansing Bureau Chief

In James Ryan, Gov. William G. Milliken found a judge who meets all of his needs.

Ryan is the Wayne County circuit judge who was appointed to fill the Supreme Court vacancy created by the resignation of Justice John B. Swainson.

Ryan is a Republican, meeting a main criterion of partisan acceptability.

But he has not been active in statewide GOP circles, taking away the possible charge of political cronyism or payoff some other appointments might have prompted.

He has been a judge of nine years, giving him plenty of experience to bring to the high court.

He is regarded as a man of integrity by people in both parties. In fact, there was praise for the appointment from all corners, including the high court itself.

He is, in short, an ideal appointment to fill a vacancy created by so tortuous a development as the conviction of a judge on a felony charge. In fact, Chief Justice Thomas B. Kavanagh's statement welcoming Ryan to the court was seen as much as a welcoming of the end of six months of turmoil as anything. For the first time since Swainson's indictment last May the court now has seven fulltime judges.

For all his qualifications, however, there is one other facet of the new judge that equally was as important — his last name.

The name Ryan is a familiar one that voters will recognize next year. It should help guarantee him election. And for all the other qualities that go into, or should go into selecting a Supreme Court judge, the name remains as important as any.

"The name game," as it is known around here, is an old one.

It stems from the fact that Supreme Court judges are elected statewide on a nonpartisan ballot in a race that receives little attention. Thus the main criterion for success is a well known name.

The most popular ethnic background in recent years has been Irish Catholic. There has been a Brennan, two Kavanaghs and a Fitzgerald. Ryan is the fifth.

In addition there have been two former governors, Swainson and G. Mennen Williams, and a cousin with the same last name as a gubernatorial candidate — Charles Levin.

There have been two exceptions. One is Justice Mary Coleman, who won election as the only woman candidate in 1972, a fact which generated a great deal of publicity and thus name recognition.

The other is Justice Larry Lindemer, appointed earlier this year by the governor to fill a vacancy. Many Republicans worry that Lindemer's name will hurt him in next year's election even though he will carry an incumbency designation.

Thus, it has been a requirement for all practical purposes to be either Irish in ethnic background, or else have a past career or other distinctive characteristic that would guarantee wide recognition of your name to be elected or appointed to the court.

Despite the fact Ryan is highly qualified and despite the fact he is exactly the sort of person who would get appointed if the governor made all appointments to the court, rather than having contested elections, his last name would have ruled him out had it been one of the thousands of other last names in the state.

There is no real answer to the situation, save going to a system of appointments of judges with periodic "yes" or "no" votes by the people rather than contested elections. Under the current situation where money is scarce and name recognition is so valuable there appears little chance for change. Despite your qualifications, you're going to have to have the right name or you'll never make the court.

As Panax sees it

U.S. continuing down risky path

There are many who charge today that U.S. African policy is increasingly being directed by black African dictators and by members of the Congressional Black Caucus. The U.S. continues down a risky path in Africa by permitting President Mobutu Sese Seko of Zaire to dictate U.S. African policy. The latest act of acquiescence to Mobutu's whims was the resignation of Nathaniel Davis after only five months as under secretary of state for African Affairs.

Earlier in 1975 came the expulsion of Deane Hinton, U.S. ambassador to Zaire, because Mobutu decided the latest coup effort against him must have come from the United States.

As long as U.S. African policy continues to be conducted in a leadership vacuum, the decisions will continue to come out of Kinshasa and Kampala and not out of Washington.

The U.S. does not have an overall African policy. Africa is not considered a matter of high priority by Dr. Kissinger or other high U.S. officials. Since this is the case, pressure groups, such as the Congressional Black Caucus, are able to have an influence out of proportion to those they represent.

Our concern for U.S. African policy relates to the imminent take-over of Angola by Soviet dominated forces. That take-over will mean the cutting of our oil lifeline around the southern tip of Africa anytime the Soviet Union desires the severance.

As they see it

Pullen writes about hunting

To the editor: The recent letter by the obviously uninformed young person is typical of those who are anti-hunting. Of course, the statements were not too accurate as there has been no improper control of hunting in the area.

The amount of wild life is far from marginal in the township and as far as ducks are concerned, there are thousands more coming to the lake than ever before.

But the idea of preserving wild life is repugnant to every sportsman unless the future generations want to see stuffed animals because of lack of hunting and proper conservation.

Duck hunters have a proprietary right to the ducks as they pay the whole bill where conservation is concerned.

As for property damage, I worry about the liberals and not the person with a gun.

THE DESERVING ONES

'A Christmas Thank You'

Mom and Dad so busy, they never seem to pause,
Why with the twinkle in their eyes,
You'd think they were Mr. and Mrs. Claus.

Cookies baking in the oven, candy on top of the stove,
Oh, here comes Dad with more Christmas Surprises and what a heavy load!

Gee, I like the feel of Christmas and the smell of the big green tree,
And I thank God for Mom and Dad,
Who taught the real meaning of Christmas to me.

I thank God for that winter night,
So many years ago,
There in a stable Christ was born,
A Saviour, so I've been told.

I thank God for the wise men three
Who traveled oh so far,
And were guided by a bright and wondrous star.

I thank you God for the humble shepherds,
Who came and knelt before thee,
And thank you for the angels,
Who told the story so free.

Yes, thank you God for Christmas
And what it means to me,
I pray, "Dear God," that all the world will see,
That Jesus comes as a Saviour
For everyone who needs.
Happy Birthday, Jesus

Love from Cindy

To the editor: This poem was written for my daughter a few weeks before Christmas. Watching her and listening to her talk about Christmas seemed to thrill my heart.

That night, these words came to me.
Her age is nine.

NOW IT'S SAFE — House Speaker Bobby D. Crim (D-Davison) looks over a toy with one young toy "expert" — who now will face safer articles for his amusement.

Crim was the chief sponsor of the state's new safe toy law, which went into effect this year.

Law aims at unsafe toys

Western Wayne County youngsters will have a tough, new state law guarding them against unsafe toys this Christmas.

The law, passed by the Legislature just before last Christmas, went into effect April 1 and will have its first impact on toys sold in Michigan this Yule season.

House Speaker Bobby D. Crim (D-Davison), chief sponsor of the safe toy bill while he was House majority floor leader last year, regards it as one of the major pieces of consumer protection legislation passed last session.

"Many children are injured each year by defective or improperly designed toys," Crim said. "And the proliferation of potentially hazardous electrical, mechanical and thermal toys on the market was frightening. A law to regulate their manufacture and sale in Michigan was vital to protect our children."

Crim's safe toy bill, which amended the state's Hazardous Substances Act, had several important aspects.

(1) It brought any toy or article considered a mechanical, electrical or thermal hazard to children under the act's definition of a "banned hazardous substance" which meant such toys or articles could not be sold or manufactured in Michigan.

(2) It brought state law into line with federal regulations.

(3) It required a manufacturer or wholesaler of thermal, electrical and mechanical toys to obtain a license annually from the Department of Agriculture and every retailer of toys to register with the state.

(4) It gave the attorney general and county prosecutors the authority to stop violations of the law.

(5) It provided stiff penalties for violations, raising the standard misdemeanor penalty (90 days in jail, a $100 fine, or both) to a fine of up to $2,000 up to a year in jail, or both. Further, it made intentional violation a felony punishable by up to $20,000 fine, up to five years in prison, or both.

The State Agriculture Department has the task of licensing the state's toy manufacturers, wholesalers and retail outlets, and determining if a particular toy is hazardous to children.

A spokesman said the department uses Federal Consumer Product Safety Commission guidelines to determine whether or not a particular toy is potentially hazardous and should be banned.

Ferris' students honored

Five Western Wayne County residents are among 1,731 students to be honored for scholastic excellence during the fall quarter at Ferris State College in Big Rapids, Mich.

Honored were New Boston residents Alice M. Herhager of Middle Belt Road and Charles P. Pearson of Waltz.

Romulus collegians honored were Denise Ann Asbury of Oak Grove, Kenneth J. Konarska of King and Lynn M. Renke of St. Aloysius.

TAKE NOTE!

—The Wayne Coin Club meets the first and third Monday of each month at 7:30 p.m. at the Wayne Community Center at Howe Road and Annapolis Street in Wayne. An auction is held at each meeting and there is both a junior and senior membership group in the club. Speakers or special programs are featured at one of the monthly meetings and business is conducted at the other. The meetings are open to all interested persons.

County seeks abolition of judges' jail panel

Wayne County officials have asked the Michigan Supreme Court to abolish a panel of three Circuit Court judges and to void the panel's orders to spend another $1.5 million at the county jail.

A motion, charging that the judicial panel "long ago abandoned its role of (impartial) judiciary and has taken an adversary position," was filed with the high court in Lansing last Friday on behalf of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners and the Sheriff.

The petition asks the Supreme Court, which has superintending control over lower courts, to order that one circuit judge be selected to preside over the jail case.

That same day, the Board of Commissioners voted to appeal to the Supreme Court orders which were handed down by the 3-judge panel Nov. 20 and, according to official estimate, would cost a total of $1,564,200 per year to implement.

The county corporation counsel was directed to appeal "on the basis that it is not reasonable and consistent with the county's ability to finance and that no funds are available for appropriation for these purposes."

The Board of Commissioners, struggling with a financial crisis, last month adopted an annual budget which eliminated some 600 jobs from county-funded operations. Most of the positions already were vacant due to budget limitations.

Board Chairman Roscoe L. Bobo said: "The Board of Commissioners has appropriated at least $5½ million for improvements at the jail over the last few years, and it is our intention to discharge our responsibilities and to maintain humane conditions there. But we also have the responsibility of adequately funding public services which are necessary to the health and safety of the general citizenry. The available money can be spread only so thin."

The petition, asking that the judicial panel be abolished, cited the Nov. 20 orders as examples of how the panel has usurped the functions of the Board of Commissioners, the Sheriff and other county offices.

On that date, the panel directed the Sheriff to submit plans for reducing the jail population, which has been running at more than 900 inmates, to 720 inmates by finding quarters for the excess elsewhere. The panel said the Sheriff should assume that the county commissioners will provide funds for a reasonable plan.

The court also ordered that winter outdoor recreation and appropriate warm clothing for it be provided for prisoners, that visitor policies be liberalized, and that psychiatric services and jail reception center staff be increased.

Total cost of implementing the orders would come to $1,564,200, Fiscal Advisor Edward E. Bobowski told the board.

In a related action, the Board of Commissioners on Dec. 4 reluctantly voted 16-2 with three abstentions, to restore 17 positions, which the Board had cut from the jail reception-diagnostic center while paring all county operations due to the budget crisis.

The board acted after getting legal advice that the positions were mandated by the 3-judge panel in a 1972 order that was not challenged at that time. To meet the $203,850 annual cost of continuing the positions, the board eliminated three reception center jobs not covered by the 1972 order and deleted nine temporary deputies' jobs.

Funeral is conducted for former publisher

Services for Wesley F. Willett, former co-publisher of The Associated Newspapers, were held Wednesday at Unt Memorial Funeral Home, 35400 Glenwood Road, Westland.

Mr. Willett, 72, died yesterday in Garden City Hospital after a lengthy illness.

Mr. Willett, a well-known figure in the area for the past 40 years, was the publisher of The Associated Newspapers which included The Wayne Eagle and the Livingston County Press.

Services tomorrow evening will be conducted by Edward Clement of the Wayne Congregation of Jehovah Witnesses and on Wednesday by the Rev. Charles Jacobs of the First United Methodist Church.

Burial services will be held at Oakwood Cemetery in Adrian, Mich., at 2 p.m.

Mr. Willett was a past member of the Michigan Press Association, the Suburban Press Foundation and the Accredited Home Newspapers of

...ex-publisher

America. He also was a member of the National Newspapers Association.

Mr. Willett was a past president of the Wayne State University Press Club, the Detroit Press Club, a 20-year-member of the Adercraft Club and a former staff member of the Detroit Times.

He was a member of the Wayne Rotary Club, a past president of the Wayne

Chamber of Commerce, National Public Relations Society and an active supporter and past member of the Junior Achievement.

Mr. Willett was a past member of the Optimist Club, the Detroit Bowling Proprietor's Association, co-owner of the Rivera Recreation of Detroit and a 30-year-member of Detroit Musician's Union.

He was a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon, life member of Daylight Lodge F&AM Detroit and High 12 Club, a former member of the Rosedale Park Civic Association and most recently was associated with the PAK Printers of Detroit, serving as a board director.

He is survived by his wife, Mildred, two daughters, Mrs. Marilyn Lawrence and Mrs. Barbara Ann Larkins and two sons, Ronald Westley and David John.

Mr. Willett also is survived by 13 grandchildren and three great grandchildren. He was the son of Fred (Pops) Willett.

Romulus High grads seek job placements

Twenty-four Romulus High School graduates are looking for work, many of them girls who have taken the office training classes and now are looking for jobs in their field.

Among the job-seekers is one who wants to work with animals. A few young ladies would like child care work to complement their background of related training in this area.

A few of the young people, approximately 18 years old, have expressed a desire to work outdoors; others would like factory work.

Employers who can give a young person a chance to make a living, are asked to call Miss Ward at 941-4420.

In the armed forces

Helton completes Marine training

Among Belleville-Romulus residents in the news in the armed forces is Marine Pvt. Kenneth L. Helton who recently graduated from recruit training at the Marine Corps Depot in San Diego, Calif.

Pvt. Helton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Helton Jr. of 19650 Karr Road, Belleville.

While at the recruit depot, he received training in physical conditioning, discipline and teamwork.

His classes included instruction in close order drill, Marine Corps history, first aid, uniform regulations and military customs and courtesies.

Also in the armed forces are:
Airman Melodie L.

Anderson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell G. Anderson of 1139 W. Huron River Drive, Belleville, has graduated at Keesler Air Force Base, Miss., from the U.S. Air Force chaplain services specialist course, conducted by the Air Training Command.

The airman, now trained to prepare chaplain reports and assist in Air Force religious functions, is being assigned to Myrtle Beach

Air Force Base, S.C., for duty with a unit of the Tactical Air Command. Airman Anderson is a 1973 graduate of Belleville High School.

Army Spec. 4 James

Harnish, the son of Mrs. Patricia M. Harnish, 975 Sumpter, Belleville, recently participated in Exercise REFORGER in Germany.

Spec. Harnish regularly is assigned as a body and fender repairman in the 903rd Maintenance Company in Nellingen.

The U.S. Air Force Military Airlift Command flew approximately 10,000 U.S.-based soldiers and their equipment to Germany to participate in the exercise.

The 21-year-old soldier entered the Army in January 1973, completed basic training at Ft. Knox, Ky., and was last stationed at Ft. Bliss, Tex.

Scouts collect honors

The Cubs of Cub Scout Pack 823 of the Gordonier Elementary School in Romulus have received awards for their efforts in scouting.

Earning the bobcat badge were Rodney Harrison, Jack King, Donald Shultz, John Zimmerman, Michael Spravjr, Howard Fry, John Giannetti, David Terry, Jerry Mills, Rodney Rhodes, Bobby Blanco, Gale Charboneau and Mark Hunter.

Howard Pyles received his bear badge and Shane and Shawn Chemons received gold and silver arrows.

John Bogusaki received a wolf badge, a gold arrow and three silver arrows. Each of the dens opened the meeting with Indian dances to mark Indian month.

The Webelos Den received the attendance award for the meeting.

CAP wins honor

The Wayne-Romulus Civil Air Patrol Squadron is once again busy.

The unit's drill team now is proudly wearing cords they earn from drill competitions.

On Nov. 8 the cadets had an outside activity, going on a hayride, and now are planning a Christmas party in December. It will be a 'Pot Luck' dinner.

In January there will be a Military Ball. The ladies will dress up, and the men wear Class A uniforms and white shirts and ties (bow).

There also was a reward night for the following Cadets who have moved up in rank.

R. Durham is halfway to rank of first lieutenant (cadet). A. Hatcher, Goddard Ach. and S. Bowman as cadet second lieutenants, J. Hunt and M. Olson as cadet master sergeant, E. Olson cadet technical sergeant, B. Valuet, R. VanVliet and K. Hutchinson cadet staff sergeant, S. Block and M. Hunt cadet sergeant, T. Kudla, c-lcl, M. Sobczak cadet first class, S. Silvey and J. Engel cadet airmen and new senior member Sandra Dubois.

The cadets also put on several drill performances this month. One was held at Cherry Hill High School.

The squadron now has a Rifle Drill Squad which performs regular rifle drill, as well as monkey rifle drill. The Wayne-Romulus drill team will be going to Canada for the International Drill Comp, and the team is planning to compete in standard drill, monkey drill as well as Canadian drill.

Served in cafeterias

Roast turkey is bill of fare in schools

On tap for students attending the Van Buren, Romulus and Lincoln Consolidated schools next week will be such cafeteria bill of fares as roast turkey in gravy, ravioli with cheese in tomato sauce, salisbury steak and Spanish noodles. For youngsters attending the Van Buren elementary schools Monday the cafeterias will be offering soup, hot dogs on buns, tator tots, icy birds and milk, followed by juice, pizza, salad, pudding and milk on Tuesday. Next Wednesday the youngsters will be treated to an early Christmas dinner of roast turkey in gravy over mashed potatoes, dressing, cranberry sauce, vegetables, bread and butter, cake and milk.

Next Thursday, the menu will be juice, spaghetti with meat sauce, bread and butter, cobbler, fruit and milk.

Next Friday none of the district's cafeterias will be in operation since it will be the beginning of the Christmas recess.

In the junior and senior high schools, Monday's bill of fare will be sloppy joes on buns, tator tots, fruit, cookies and milk, with the alternate selection as the Belleville Burger.

On Tuesday the cafeterias will be serving ravioli with cheese in tomato sauce, tossed salad, bread and butter, fruit jello, pudding, and milk, with the second selection as pizza in the high school and the Belleville burger in the junior highs.

The students' traditional Christmas dinner will be served next Wednesday and will consist of juice, roast turkey, mashed potatoes with gravy, dressing, cranberry sauce, vegetables, bread and butter, pie and milk, with the Belleville burger with cheese as the alternate selection.

On Thursday, the final day of school for 1975, the students will be served steak sandwiches on buns with lettuce and tomatoes, french fried potatoes, fruit jello, cake and milk, while bar-b-qued beef on buns will be the second selection.

In the Romulus Community Schools, the menu Monday will be chili con carne, cabbage salad, bread and butter, fruit juice and milk, with salisbury steak with mashed potatoes and gravy, buttered green beans, bread and butter, peach cup and milk.

Next Wednesday the lineup will be cheeseburgers or hot dogs, whole kernel corn, bread and butter, fruit juice and milk, with tuna casserole, hot vegetables, bread and butter, pineapple cup and milk slated for next Thursday.

Rounding out the week will be submarine sandwiches with meat and cheese, potato chips, bread and butter, fruit jello and milk.

In the Lincoln Consolidated schools, the menu Monday will include bar-b-que, potato chips, fruit, cookies and milk, with Spanish noodles, vegetable, rolls, apple crisp and milk planned for Tuesday.

On next Wednesday, the cafeterias will be serving cook's choice, while next Thursday will be the annual Christmas dinner and next Friday cook's choice.

Train battle rages

A state representative from Romulus has launched a drive to save the steam locomotive on exhibit at the Michigan State Fairgrounds.

Rep. Edward E. Mahalak is appealing for statewide citizen support to prevent demolition of the relic.

According to Mahalak, the locomotive is in disrepair and considered unsafe as an exhibit. He said the State Fair Authority has given an ultimatum to either get rid of the locomotive within 90 days or else work out a plan to restore it.

The problem, however, is that the authority does not have money budgeted for the restoration.

"I think it would be a disgrace to allow this colorful survivor of our steam railroad heritage to be reduced to scrap," he said. "It has been a showpiece for years and must be preserved for future generations. It has been enjoyed by countless thousands of adults who remember steam railroading and children who have never seen a steam locomotive. It belongs to the people of Michigan. We cannot let it slip away from us because of apathy and inaction."

Bazaar planned

The Sumpter Area Girl Scouts will be sponsoring a bazaar from 6 to 9 p.m. Friday at the Sumpter Road Elementary School, located at 23501 Sumpter Road.

Open to the public, the bazaar will include door prizes, refreshments, games, prizes and a cake walk. Tickets for the door prizes will be on sale at the door of the school.

Eagles win 3 in a row

Romulus cagers are on the move

The cage winds have shifted at Romulus High. Last year at this time Coach Jesse Meriweather and his Eagles were struggling, wondering, and looking for their first victory.

It's a different story this season. With three impressive victories behind them, the Eagles have reestablished themselves as an area cage power. "We've gotten off to a pretty good start, said Meriweather who is in his third year as the Romulus head coach. "Our boys played in the St. Cecilia League in Detroit during the summer and picked up very valuable experience. "In fact, we reached the semi-finals in that league," Meriweather added.

After crushing Ann Arbor Huron 71-59 last Friday and whipping Port Huron Central 84-56 earlier in the week, Romulus will take Friday off but will return to the hardwood Tuesday night at Centerline St. Clement.

Michael Morrison sank 10 of his team high 19 points in the first period to stake Romulus to a 22-10 lead against Huron and the Eagles left little doubt which was the better team.

Morrison connected on eight of his shots from the field and canned three of four free throws for his 19 points. Melvin Stewart was the only other Romulus cager in double figures as he sank 10 points. Romulus marched off the court with a 38-26 halftime advantage, then increased the margin by four in the third period (57-40) before Meriweather turned loose his bench strength. A 27-point second period kayoted Port Huron as the Eagle broke open an 18-12 second period. Romulus went on to outscore their visitors 18-15 and 21-20 the final two periods.

Sports

Allen Lewis also was in double figures for Romulus. He connected on seven field goals and was 3-for-3 from the foul line for 17 points.

Central's Ed Rabske was the only Port Huron cager to break into the double figure scoring column. He sank 17.

Romulus was scheduled to meet DePores Tuesday night at home.

"We have some tough ones ahead of us," said

Meriweather, singling out Detroit Northwestern, Southwestern and River Rouge that his Eagle are scheduled to face later in the season.

"We have to be ready for them," he added.

Annapolis Hi tests matmen

Annapolis, one of the top Class A wrestling teams in the state last year, is next for Avern Logan's Eagles at Romulus High.

"We don't know much about them this year," said Logan whose team has amassed a 2-1 won-lost record thus far in dual meet competition.

"But they placed fourth at the Ypsilanti Invitational, so they must have a decent team again this season," the second year Romulus coach added.

The two teams will meet tomorrow at 7 p.m. Romulus has fared well in competition. They knocked off Ida, 41-9, beat area rival, New Boston Huron 36-24 while losing to Adrian 37-16.

Adrian is one of the teams that could replace Wayne Memorial as the next Class A state champ.

Logan said he's satisfied with the progress of his team.

READY FOR ACTION — Former All-Area and state champ, Brad Smith will be one of the key performers for the University of Toledo this season. Brad, who toured the Soviet Union, with the United States Junior Olympics team last year, was named to the all-MAC conference team as a freshman.

Smith brothers back at Toledo

Brad Smith, one of the top wrestlers ever to come out of the area, and his brother, Virgil, will form the nucleus of the 1975-76 University of Toledo wrestling team.

Brad, a sophomore, and Virgil, a junior, both graduated from Romulus High where they were All-Area and All-State performers for Coach Jim Stallings' team two years ago.

Brad was named to the all Mid-American Conference team as a freshman after posting a 20-2 won-lost record at the 142-pound weight class.

Virgil, who also competes on the Rocket basketball team, lettered in wrestling too.

Tiger rally falls short against Trenton, 65-56

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Trenton caught Belleville with its guards down Friday night and floored the Tigers 65-56 in the Suburban 8 Conference basketball opener.

And that — the lack of adequate guards — could spell disaster for Niemi's Tigers the rest of the 1975-76 campaign.

Belleville lost two All-Area backcourt wizards, Mel Abraham and Walt Easley to graduation, and Niemi is trying to find people to do the job.

"We don't have experience at the guard positions," said Niemi, "and until we get people back there, we're going to struggle."

That's what — struggle — the Tigers did against Trenton as the Trojans, led by all-state griddler Greg Castignola, jumped to a 25-15 first period lead and never looked back.

Castignola sank eight of his 12 points in that first period.

Belleville defense managed to settle down in the second eight minutes and held their hosts to nine points while Dennis Easley and Narvell Turner led a Tiger rally that came within three points several times of catching the Trojans.

But the Tigers never got the equalizer.

Trenton held a 34-29 edge at halftime and widened the margin to 50-41 for three periods. Both teams scored 15 points in the final period.

Turner, who fouled out with 3½ minutes to go, collected 21 points, one less than Easley who hit on 11 field goals.

Trenton's Steve Deller parlayed eight baskets and nine free throws into a game high 25 points. Jim Rousseau added 16 while Catignola finished with 12.

Trenton also had the advantage of 15 of 27 from the free throw line while Belleville made four of "fouls."

Belleville looked like a different team at Ypsilanti where the Tigers won their nonleague opener 63-49.

Trailing 12-11 after the first period, Easley and James Thompkins each sank six points to spark a second period Belleville rally that sparked the visitors a 36-26 halftime edge.

The Tigers then scored the first four points of the third period, but Ypsilanti refused to quit and closed within three points before Belleville sank the next 11 points, Easley getting five of them.

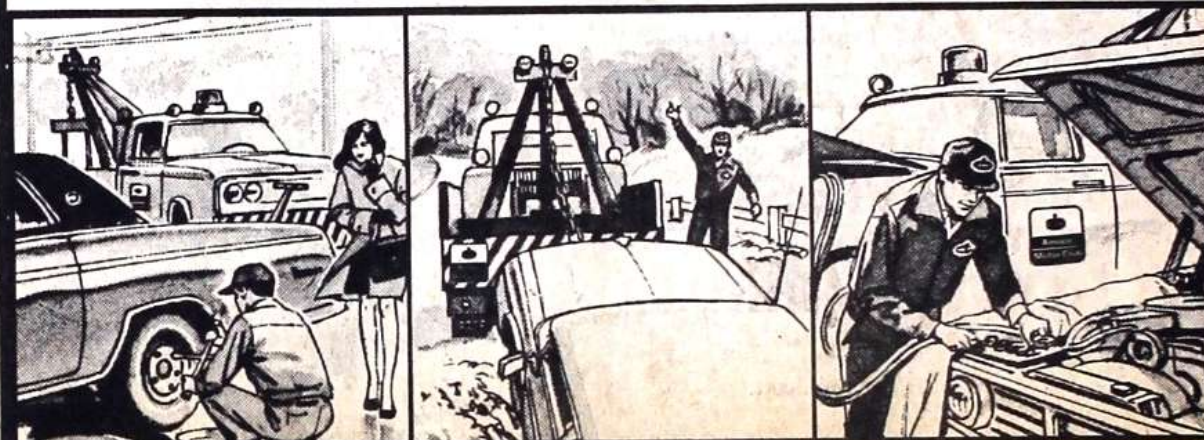

Belleville took 58 shots and made 23 of them for 40 percentage as compared to (Continued on Page A-14)

'DEADEYE' — One reason why Romulus cagers have gotten off to a fast start is the "hot hands" of senior guard Michael Morrison (above) who is scoring in double figures for three games. Morrison fired in 19 points to lead the Eagles past Ann Arbor Huron and also collected 26 in the opening night triumph over Inkster. Romulus has this Friday off and will return to the hardwood Tuesday at Centerline St. Clement.

But Belleville's Sam Vicchy and his Tiger tankers are involved in one tomorrow night when undefeated and highly-touted Cherry Hill invades the local pool.

The clash could produce the next Western Wayne Invitational champ. Both Belleville and Cherry Hill are stocked with experienced and seasoned swimmers.

"They beat us by two points (87-85) last year," recalled Vicchy whose Tigers have already chalked up two nonleague victories. "It went right down to the freestyle relay and all indications are that it will be the same way again this season."

Belleville is host for the 7 p.m. nonleague meeting.

Meanwhile Belleville trounced Ypsilanti 117-65, sweeping nine out of a possible 11 events. Earlier in the week the Tigers dunked Wyandotte 53-31, claiming eight of the 11 first places.

Mark Stoelton got off to an excellent start as he turned in a double victory against Ypsilanti. Stoelton, one of the top swimmers in the tough Suburban 8 Conference, was clocked in 23.49 in winning the 50-yard freestyle and also was timed in a 53.01 in taking the 100-yard freestyle.

Belleville won both relays. Vicchy picked out Ron Curtis, Paul Wanshon, Farley Parson and Stoelton for the 200-yard medley and the foursome responded with a 1:48.12.

Jeff Fogarty, Harold Gable, Howard Renton and Steve Lehman combined for a 3:38.40 in winning the 400-yard freestyle relay. Curtis also had the best time for the 100-yard backstroke (1:03.3), beating teammate Renton to the finish by two-tenths of a second.

Parson registered a

1:09.56 in winning the 100-yard breaststroke.

John Ramsey, who churned a 2:17.67 in winning the 200-yard individual medley; Steve Lehman who covered the 100-yard butterfly in 59.50, and Bill Ratti's 4:28.52 for the 500-yard freestyle were also Belleville individual event winners.

Cougars elect officers

David Samel has been elected president of the Belleville Cougars, an organization that fields teams in the Western Junior Football League.

A new slate of officers also was elected last week. They include:

Keith Brinkerhoff, who retained his position as vice president; Dianna Villa, treasurer; Dianna McDaniel, secretary and public relations; Rufus Goins, unit director; Paul LaPorte, equipment manager; Mike Smolen, assistant equipment manager; Jonette Smith, candy chairwoman and Eunice Kaue, banquet chairwoman.

The league representatives are: Rufus Goins, Daniel Samsel, Frank McDaniel, and Roger Templeman; the alternates include Keith Brinkerhoff, Doug Traskos and Mike Smolen.

Named to the rules and eligibility representative is Samsel while Sandi Goins is chairwoman of the 50-50 raffle.

The new board members will replace the 1975 board in January.

Retiring members were Brian Fry, president; Gloria Traskos, secretary; Doug Traskos, unit director; Connie Brinkerhoff, cheerleader adviser; Mike Smolen, equipment manager; Jim Bishop, and Fred O'Keefe, league representatives.

The next Cougar meeting will be held at Lodge Lanes Bowling Lanes.

Abdo to wrestle for Grand Valley

Senior Michael Abdo is a member of the Grand Valley State College's wrestling team. The 185-pound Romulus High School graduate is an important member of the outstanding GVSC wrestling program.

"Mike is a senior who has made strides in the past year that may elevate him to a starting position," said coach Jim Scott.

Abdo transferred to Grand Valley from Grand Rapids Junior College, where he was third in the state.

Grand Valley placed fifth in the NAIA National meet last spring. Abdo will be counted on to help the Lakers reach the National Tournament once again.

TOUGH AGAIN — Westland John Glenn's contribution to the All-Area wrestling team last year. Agron Vasha (on top) continued where he left off a year ago as he remains undefeated on the mats this season. Agron was awarded a major decision (above) when he beat Plymouth Salem's Carl Schultz 14-3 on Tuesday. Glenn won a 40-17 team victory, stretching their dual meet streak to two. Vasha also won the 126-pound class gold medal at Saturday's Western Wayne Invitational.

Tigers are contenders

Belleville Coach Gerald Malecek feels he has a title contender on his hands.

The fourth year Tiger wrestling mentor points to "his team's experience and the number of holdovers from last year" as reasons for his optimism.

"We won the league meet," Malecek said, "but, because of our two dual losses in the league, we were forced to settle for fourth place last year."

This year the Tigers have Greg Johnson, who, as a 98-pounder a year ago posted a 30-3 won-lost record and was named to the All-Area team. Johnson already has compiled a 5-1 record and captured the Western Wayne Invitational at 105 this season.

Randy Slocum, another "blue chipper," finished fourth in the state at 185 and is back at that weight class. He's presently undefeated and also won the WW title.

The Bracken brothers - Jeff and Kevin - along with 119-pounder Mike Mlsna and 145-pounder Don Woodby should also prove tough this season.

"We'll be in the thick of the title race, I have no doubts about that," Malecek said. "I feel in fact that we're the team to beat."

Malecek pointed out that "one thing could upset our plans - that's sickness."

"We had a lot of flu on this team last year and we're going to have to stay healthy if we're going to win it."

Belleville must find a way to stop Edsel Ford, always a strong figure when it comes to wrestling. The Tigers will open the Suburban 8 Conference season tomorrow night at home (7:30) to Livonia Bentley. The Tigers' mat image could improve greatly on Tuesday if they can upset Adrian, one of the top teams in Class A.

Belleville 3rd at WW Invitational

title. Johnson earned the gold medal via a 3-0 victory. Johnson's teammate, Randy Slocum, one of the finest wrestlers in the state a year ago, disposed of Glenn's Mark Grabowski by a 9-2 decision to claim the 185-pound top prize. Coach Gerald Malecek's Tigers also had three runner-ups in Jeff Bracken (126), Kevin Bracken (132) and Dan Porter (138).

Jeff lost to Glenn's Agron Vasha 3-1 in the bout for the 126-pound gold. The highly-touted Vasha placed fourth in the state last year.

Kevin had his problems with Wayne's Tim Clark who worked his way to a 11-6 decision and the 132-pound class championship.

Belleville also placed third with Don Woodby (155) and produced two fourth place finishers in Steve Harsch (112) and Mike Mlsna (119).

Ed Parris (98), Stan Johnson (145) and heavy-weight Bob Cook ended up in fifth place in their respective weight classes.

Lamar Sandusky, an All-Area grappler, last year, and Ed Abbott, recently selected to the All-Area football team, earned Romulus' gold medals.

Sandusky, undefeated on the season, dumped Farmington's Pat Rence 9-2 to place first in the 112 pound class. Abbott pinned Chuck Squires in 1:36, his fourth fall of the tournament in the heavyweight class.

Romulus' Dennis Bergmooser missed out on the gold when he was pinned by Wayne Memorial's Andy MacEachern in 3:40 for the top honors at 98-pounds.

Coach Vern Logan's Eagles also placed fourth with Rick Morrison (126); fifth with Neil Burcroft (132) and Safi Williams (167) and sixth with Perry Harper (105), Norman Butler (119) and Will Brown (155).

Belleville rally falls short

(Continued from Page A-12) the Braves' 18 of 65 shooting performance from the floor. The Tigers also had the edge in rebounding, 37-35. Easley counted 12. Both Easley and Turner finished in double figures. Dennis collected 17 while Turner had 11. Ypsi's Robbie Robinson and Scott Davis accounted for 15 and 12 points, respectively.

Belleville resumes league action on Friday at home at Redford Union, a team that lost to pre-season title favorite, Plymouth Salem, 79-70, in their opener. Plymouth also is the defending champ.

Miss Berbee named to all-league ball team

Though shutout from the first team, Belleville did place a player on the second team of the Suburban 8 Girls All-League basketball team.

Kathy Berbee, who scored 287 points for the season, 38 in one game for a school record, was named to the second team, joining Seneski (Trenton), Nichols (Bentley), Ross (Redford Union) and Lynn (Trenton).

The first string was made up of Dryer (Bentley), Dillon (Plymouth Salem), Kosenvak (Redford Union), Deller (Trenton) and Moore (Salem).

Honorable mention was awarded to Belleville's Fatima Carter, Ottenbacker (Allen Park), Goodrich (Salem), Slack (Redford Union, Crissey (Salem), Brown (Redford Union), Budell (Allen Park), Thornsbury (Belleville), Posan (Bentley), Paponetti (Belleville) and Henagar (Redford Union).

Romulus sets meet

Today, take a good look at the world's #1 selling snowmobile.

Look at our value-priced Elan for '76

There is no other snowmobile like Elan from Ski-Doo. Sure, there are other small machines around. But with Elan, only the size and the price are compact. The performance is full size. Elan spreads its light weight over a standard size snowmobile track. The result is a sled that combines snowplow flotation and easy handling with big machine traction.

If you think that combination sounds like fun, you're right. And for '76, you can get that fun in two Elan models: the 250 single cylinder and the 350 Deluxe twin.

AUTO FACTS

by Jr. Kosin

A very low percentage of drivers actually make turns safely and correctly. Remember that proper turning is important to good driving. Slow down for each turn early, move into the proper lane and begin braking well before you reach the corner, especially if the traffic is heavy or fast-moving. Always turn on your turn indicator at least 100 feet before the corner. Make sure the road is clear in all directions and be especially wary of pedestrians — when the light is in their favor, remember that they have the right of way. Make your turn neither too long nor too short.

Symphony hosts Yule festival

Musical wishes for a happy holiday season will be offered by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in Ford Auditorium from Monday through Dec. 21, as the orchestra presents its 1975 Christmas Festival.

Festival highlights include a Christmas "Pops" concert, the annual performances of Handel's "Messiah" and, for the first time, a locally produced full-length production of Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker" Ballet.

Opening night for the festival will be Friday when Principal Pops Conductor Richard Hayman will take the audience on a musical sleigh ride to a holiday sing-along in a Christmas "Pops" program, beginning at 8:30 p.m. The Rackham Symphony Choir will appear with the orchestra.

Christmas "Pops" also will be presented on the Weekender Series at 7:30 p.m. Sunday. The Weekender performance has been sold out by season ticket.

Handel's Christmas oratorio, "Messiah," will be performed at 8 p.m. on Dec. 19 and at 2 p.m. Dec.

Entertainment

21, with Paul Freeman, Conductor-in-Residence, on the podium. Appearing as guest artists will be soprano Faye Robinson, mezzo-soprano Florence Quivar, tenor Grayson Hirst and bass-baritone Benjamin Matthews, with the Kenneth Jewell Chorus.

Making its debut with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in four performances of Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker" Ballet will be Dance Detroit, resident company of the University of Detroit and Marygrove College.

The totally new "Nutcracker" production, complete with new costumes and scenery, will be conducted by Theo Alcantara, Music Director of the Grand Rapids Symphony, with Jacob Lascu as choreographer and Peter Farmer, designer. Performances are scheduled for 8:00 p.m. Dec. 18. At 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Dec. 20 and at 8 p.m. Dec. 21.

The Young People's Concerts Series also will present a Christmas favorite as its next offering on Saturday. The now-classic Christmas opera, Gian-Carlo Menotti's "Amahl and the Night Visitors" will be staged under the direction of David Aiken at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. performances. Paul Freeman will conduct.

Santa himself is planning to be in the Ford Auditorium lobby that day to greet the boys and girls in attendance. In addition, Young People's season ticketholders are invited to attend either performance of the Nutcracker Ballet on Dec. 20, as a make-up event for the cancelled concert date of Oct. 11.

Tickets now are on sale at Ford Auditorium Box Office, by calling 961-0700.

Fest looks at China

Looking for something different to do with the kids this weekend?

The US-China Peoples Friendship Association has an idea — take them to the "China Day for Children and Young People," Dec. 20.

"China Day" — an afternoon of activities for friends of China — will be held from 1 to 6 p.m. at Trinity Methodist Church, 13100 Woodward at Buena Vista in Highland Park. Admission is free and the public is invited. The "China Day" program will include films, slide shows, and activities for children including chopstick demonstrations, storybook readings, puppet shows, flag painting and a coloring corner.

Visitors to the "China Day" also will have the chance to get their names written in Chinese, to learn to sing songs from China, see a demonstration of Tai-Chi Chuan, bake Chinese cookies and learn some Chinese dances. These activities will go on all afternoon, as will a "merchandise fair" where books, art prints, children's toys, candy, tea and other goods from China will be available for sale.

Films to be shown include "Friendship First, Competition Second," a half-hour look at sports in China produced by the British film-maker Felix Greene to be shown at 1 and 3:30 p.m. "Self-Reliance," also by Greene, gives a good introduction to life in China today, with a special emphasis on China's industry. It will be shown at 1:30 p.m. The NBC documentary, "Forbidden City," a visit to Peking today through the eyes of a 3-generation Chinese family, will be shown at 2 p.m. Two short films on Chinese acrobatics will be shown at 4 p.m.

For further information, contact Miss Rowley at 869-2660, or 865-3440.

Bands to perform

Three musical groups at Romulus Senior High School will be presenting a concert at the high school auditorium, beginning at 7:30 p.m. next Wednesday. The bands — concert, symphony and the new stage group — will be performing some holiday tunes, along with contemporary music. The concert and symphony bands will present three marches along with "The Typewriter," by Leroy Anderson and "Sleigh Ride." The stage band will be performing a collection of popular tunes ranging from "Canadian Sunset" to "Sentimental Journey." The concert is free to the public, and for early bird music lovers, organ music will be presented prior to the start of the show.

GIVE YOURSELF A PRESENT

...Join our 1976 Christmas Club

It's no secret. The people who really stay jolly and merry during the holiday hustle and bustle are the people who plan ahead. Like the people who give themselves a present by opening a WSB Christmas Club account.

It's such a painless way to save. You make regular payments into your Christmas Club account all year long. Then in November, Christmas Club savers get a check in the mail — plus interest earned from WSB. Somehow, it's always a little bit of a surprise. A check for so much money when it was so little effort to save. With money in hand and no bills to face, you can really have a merry Christmas.

Open a 1976 Wyandotte Savings Bank Christmas Club account today. You can open your account at any of the WSB Offices throughout the area. It's a wonderful way to give yourself a present that will be really appreciated!

'Guten tag!'

It was "guten tag" for members of the Belleville High School German Club when they gathered recently for the initiation of 45 new members. The party is only a few of the activities the club is involved in this year. Past planning included the annual Oktoberfest, a hayride, and spaghetti dinner. Future plans may include a sleighride, ice skating party and a trip to Frankenmuth, Mich. However, it was food and singing when the club gathered last month.

Santa comes to Romulus

Santa Claus will be coming to Romulus this week amid Christmas carols and the lighting of the community's decorations for the holiday season.

Santa will make his appearance in Romulus at 7 p.m. Friday in front of the Romulus City Hall, located in the Civic Center at Goddard and Wayne Roads.

Christmas caroling and the lighting ceremony will be included in the arrival of the Jolly Old Elf, who will remain at the center after the rite to hear the wishes of the city's youngsters.

Refreshments also will be served.

SIMPLE YET SUPER — Now is the year to institute the tradition of the no-bake peanut brownie. A true timesaver and rich with chocolate flavor baking chips, peanuts, peanut butter and a few other ingredients, these no-bake jewels will ring the bell with kids. Pack a batch of brownies in a handsome container for your favorite hostess as a nice gesture or give them as gifts.

For your recipe file

You don't bake 'em

Carols resound from the TV set; your gift list never seems to get shorter; and you ponder about what to serve youngsters when they drop in during holidays.

Must it be chocolate? Yes! Also, quick and easy to prepare, even at the last minute when you've invited practically all the neighborhood youngsters. Ever-loving traditional brownies are perfect treasures.

This might be the year for you to institute the tradition of the no-bake brownie. After all, it has the dividend of saving you time; and there's an intriguing flavor combination in "No-Bake Peanut Brownies" that's rich, moist, and chewy. Assemble a package of chocolate-flavor baking chips, peanuts, peanut butter, and a few other ingredients, including graham cracker crumbs. Once the chips are melted with evaporated milk, and ½ cup of the mixture set aside, the remainder is combined with the peanuts, peanut butter, crumbs, and confectioners sugar, and pressed into a well-greased 9-inch square pan. Then the measured chocolate, set aside earlier, is spread over to "glaze" the brownie. After chilling, cut into bars — about 32.

With this no-bake brownie recipe in hand, this year's young-fry party should be sheer joy to prepare. Remember, too, last-minute no-bake brownies are pleasing hostess gifts.

No-bake Peanut Brownies

1 cup chopped peanuts
4 cups graham cracker crumbs
½ cup unsifted confectioners sugar
¼ cup peanut butter
1 package (12 oz.) chocolate flavor baking chips
1 cup evaporated milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Combine nuts, crumbs, confectioners sugar, and peanut butter in a large mixing bowl; blend well, set aside. Heat chocolate and evaporated milk in small saucepan over low heat, stirring constantly until smoothly blended.

Remove from heat; add vanilla. Measure ½ cup of the chocolate mixture; set aside. Combine remaining chocolate mixture with crumb mixture. Spread evenly in a well-greased 9-inch square pan. Spread with measured chocolate mixture to glaze. Chill; cut into bars. Makes 32 bars.

At BPW Club

Banker explains wills, trusts

"Wills and Trusts" were the subject matter when Bates Fuell, vice-president and trust officer of Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit, addressed the Dec. 1 meeting of the Belleville Business and Professional Women's Club (BPW). The group later was given the opportunity to ask questions on the topic.

Another guest at the dinner meeting held at Faith United Methodist Church in Denton was State Legislation Chairman Audrey Perry who is a candidate for state senator in the 12th congressional district. During her visit she urged members to support Phyllis Harrison in her campaign for a third vice-president's chair in the National Federation of Business Women's Clubs.

represented their group at the President's Council recently held at the Pepper Mill in Allen Park.

The December meeting with 27 members and 10 guests in attendance was planned by the finance committee chaired by Bea Boldt. She and her committee decorated in the holiday motif.

As has been the custom over the years, club members each brought a gift for a child which will be given to needy families along with the clothing the MIA-ME Club sews each year especially for the BPW.

The regular meeting continued with reports from all standing committees and the secretary reading a congratulatory letter from William B. Ford (D-15th District) complimenting Ruth Davis on her Woman of the Year title. Martha Morton, blood bank chairman, read a letter from William Bucienski, blood bank administrator for South-Eastern Wayne County, thanking the club for conducting the most profitable blood bank in the BPW's 10-year sponsorship. A total of 167 pints were donated by area residents.

The first meeting of the new year will be held on the second Monday, Jan. 12, rather than the usual first Monday of the month.

Thompsons get first grandson

From the state of Oklahoma comes a birth announcement, which was cause for rejoicing in Michigan — Romulus, to be specific.

M-Sgt. and Mrs. Ralph Wallen who are at Altus Air Base welcomed their third child, a son, Nov. 21.

Named "William Howard," he weighed in at 6 lbs., 14 ozs.

Young William, who has two sisters, Charlotte, four, and Amy, three, is the first grandson on Mrs. Wallen's side of the family. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson of Romulus, the new heir being named for his grandfather. Mrs. Myrtle Wallen of Ypsilanti is the infant's paternal grandmother.

The baby's mother is the former Susan Thompson of Romulus.

The Social service committee prepared a basket for a needy family for Thanksgiving and is planning to do the same for Christmas. The next card party will be Jan. 20 at 7:30 p.m.

Anna Butts is patient at Ann Arbor Hospital, Wayne.

We need your number

When sending in news items, please be sure to include a telephone number where you may be reached during working hours (9 to 4). This is a must in case you have to be contacted for further information, correct spellings on names, verification of dates, etc. Also, please double-space any typed items and leave sufficient margins at the sides, top and bottom of the paper (this gives us room for instructions to the printer.)

All stories for the Suburban Living Pages should be sent to Lee Smith, Suburban Living Editor, 116 Fourth St., Belleville, 48111.

Breakfast--don't skip it!

Breakfast is a very underrated meal. It's a pity, because breakfast is a unique meal — in the wrong company, possible grounds for divorce; in the right company, an excuse for a banquet in bed on Sunday. Treat yourself to a morning splurge — have a great breakfast in bed.

Perhaps an easy-to-prepare cereal breakfast on a lovely tray served up with the morning newspaper. A bowl of fortified oat flakes with milk, broiled grapefruit half, croissant with butter and a glass of milk will give you a good start on the day. Nutritionists concur that breakfast is the one meal of the day we should never do without.

Relatives help with day-long celebration

By Mrs. Joseph Spring
699-4021

On Nov. 29, Mrs. Clarence Carnahan of E. Huron River Drive spent the day celebrating her birthday. At noon her sons, Donald of Ann Arbor and Bernard of Ypsilanti, and their wives and families surprised her with a pot luck lunch.

In the early evening her sisters and brothers came for dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Grahl Raymond of Spring Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wright of Willis and Mr. and Mrs.

Harry Sparrow and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sparrow of Ypsilanti.

Captain and Mrs. Sam Emerson with son, Matthew, and daughter, Sarah, of Wright Patterson Air Force Base in Ohio, were recent weekend guests of the former's parents, Mayor and Mrs. Justin Emerson of Madelon Street.

Recent callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carnahan of East Huron River Drive were the former's sister, Mrs. Velma McIntosh, and her daughter, Mrs. Herman Krause, of New Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Rual Pond of Detroit were holiday guests of the former's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Pond of Borgman Street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Maki and daughter, Linda, of Quirk Road spent the past week visiting the former's relatives living in Menominee County. They enjoyed Thanksgiving with Mrs. Makis' brother, Wesley Domenget and family and another brother, Dale Domenget, of Iron Mountain.

Marvin Meerse of West Columbia Avenue has returned home after spending several days with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Belisle of Amery, Wisc. The Belisles live on a large ranch where they raise turkeys, some 40,000 in all this past year.

Mrs. J. Stewart Fletcher and friend, Sophie Strad of Detroit, were recent dinner guests of the former's aunt, Mrs. F. E. Burlingame of Liberty Street.

Friends, Miss Mildred Mackey and Mrs. Margaret Shaw of Detroit, were recent luncheon guests of Mrs. Dorothy Kellas of Margery Street and later were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kidwell of Ellen Drive.

Holiday dinner guests of Mrs. Carl Mumford of Fret Road were members of her family, Mrs. Gary Halverson and two children of McHenry, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. William Chubb of Taylor and the Larry Eichold family of Lenmore Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clayton enjoyed their holiday dinner with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Munce of Detroit. Their grandsons, Michael and Bradley Munce, returned home with them to spend the weekend.

After spending a couple of weeks at Mecosta during the deer season Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Quinley of Sumpter Road have returned home.

Callers last Sunday on Mrs. Joseph Spring of Liberty Street were relatives from Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Geiger and daughter, Mary. Later in the afternoon they all called on Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Damske of Dearborn.

Mrs. S. C. Pierman of E. Huron River Drive has returned home after spending a week with relatives in Ottawa, Piqua and Enon, Ohio.

Mrs. Lillian Moore of Charlevoix, who has been spending some time in Belleville with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clayton Saunders of Liberty Street, recently left with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Saunders of East Detroit, to spend the winter in Florida.

Bentley, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dorse Bentley of Crandell Court and Scott Ford, the son of Beverly Fryer of Sumpter Road. The trio is part of a 40-member group of sixth graders which vocal music teacher Miss O'Beay formed under the label of the "Elwell Entertainers" earlier in the school year.

At convalescent center

Elwell Entertainers set happy mood

"You're a Grand Old Flag" was the hit of the day Nov. 20 when the Elwell Entertainers visited the Van Buren Convalescent Center. Jennifer Bentley was designated to be the official flag waver. However, much to her astonishment, an unidentified resident snatched the flag from her hand and stole the show as he demonstrated how the flag should be waved.

The Entertainers, a select chorus of sixth graders, perform under the direction of Ann O'Beay, vocal music teacher at Elwell School. Earlier in the year Miss O'Beay asked sixth graders to audition for the 40 positions in the group. She was overwhelmed when 70 eager students showed up. "Fifty Nifty," a song which the Entertainers sing in their Bicentennial repertoire takes their audience vocally from state to state across the nation. Other numbers include "Country Road," "God Bless America," "Yankee Doodle Dandy," "This Land is Your Land" and the opening number. The performance marked the second time in less than a year that the Entertainers performed for the convalescent center. Each time they finish, social director Marge Hunter invited them to come back again. Besides singing at the center, the group has sung in the Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce parade, at the Bicentennial Country Street Fair and before both the Belleville Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs. Miss O'Beay will be opening the curtain on a new group, The Fabulous Fifties, sometime this month. Composed of fifth graders, the troupe has been rehearsing Christmas carols for the past month and will make their debut at the Van Buren Convalescent Center.

Women drinkers is topic at NOW

"Women and Our Drinking Culture" was discussed at the Dec. 6 meeting of the Mid-Western Wayne County Chapter of the National Organization for Women (NOW).

Held at the Western YWCA in Inkster, the guest speaker was Margaret L. Clay, PhD., social planning consultant and associate research psychologist with the Mental Health Research Institute at the University of Michigan.

Dr. Clay has done considerable research on alcoholism control and is a planning consultant on alcohol and road safety for the Michigan Department of State and a member of the Governor's Task Force on the Drinking Driver Problem.

Mid-Western Wayne County NOW covers Belleville, Van Buren Township, Romulus, Dearborn, Dearborn Heights, Inkster, Wayne, Westland, Garden City and Canton Township.

For further information on the group, contact Janet Aniline at 5118 Kenilworth, Dearborn, or call 582-8196.

Adult ed courses set at Westland

Two adult education courses will be offered for college credit at John Glenn High School in Westland beginning in January.

The classes will be offered through Michigan State University's (MSU) Continuing Education Service to accommodate the adult part-time student who wishes to earn college credit through night school. Upper level undergraduates or graduate students interested in preserving the environment may choose to take "Environmental Conservation Education," which will be offered for three credits at the high school Thursdays beginning Jan. 8.

Another course, designed for junior high and high school coaches (male and female), is "Administration of Athletic Medicine." It will be offered at John Glenn on Wednesdays beginning Jan. 14. Teaching the course will be Dr. Richard Redfearn, from the MSU College of Osteopathic Medicine. It is recommended for persons dealing with little leagues and other sports as well.

For registration information on the two courses, call MSU's Regional Center at 645-3442.

Mrs. Wilkin reaches 91st birthday

The eldest resident of the Apple Tree Lane Rest Home, Mrs. Gertrude Wilkin, recently was honored on her 91st birthday which fell on Thanksgiving Day. A group from the Romulus Wesleyan Church held a song service in the dining room the evening before with many of the residents taking part.

Following a scripture reading and prayer by the pastor, The Rev. David Standfest, cake and ice cream were served. Mrs. Wilkin was presented with a colorfully printed housecoat and a pair of pillow cases in honor of the occasion.

Slow me down, Lord...

For those of us who so often fail to take the time to "smell the flowers", this little prayer may be just the answer (especially during this hectic holiday hassle.) It has been pinned to our bulletin board at home for years and is yellowed and dogeared with age. And even though we know its calming effects, we often forget to take the time to read it.

For others who might feel themselves going "round the bend" at times, here's an inexpensive prescription — quite a sedative. The author is unknown.

"Slow me down, Lord. Ease the pounding of my heart by quieting my mind. Steady my hurried pace. Give me calmness amid the confusion of my day. Break the tension of my nerves with soothing music that lives in my memory.

Help me to know the magical restoring powers of sleep. Teach me the art of taking minute vacations ... of slowing down to chat with a friend, to read a few lines from a good book, to look at a flower.

Remind me each day of the fable of the hare and the tortoise, that I may know that there is more to life than speed. Let me look upward toward the branches of the towering oak and remember that it grew great and strong because it grew slowly.

Slow me down, Lord, slow me down."

UM students plan to marry June 11

Two University of Michigan (UM) students, Eileen Heath and Tom Sefcovic, are engaged and planning to be married next June 11.

Their betrothal is announced by Mr. and Mrs. John T. Heath of 43963 Ecorse Road, Belleville, parents of the bride-elect whose residence is at 1753 Broadview Lane, Apt. 525, Ann Arbor.

Miss Heath graduated from Belleville High School in 1972 and is to receive her bachelor of arts degree in music education in the spring of 1976. A member of Tau Beta Sigma and the Honorary Band sorority, she is employed at Howard Johnson's Restaurant in Belleville.

The prospective bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Methodius Sefcovic of 950 Bloomer, Rochester, Mich., resides at 1703 Broadview Lane, Apt. 106, Ann Arbor. A 1972 alumnus of Rochester High School, he, too, will earn a bachelor of arts degree in music performance from the UM next spring. He is a member of the Toledo Symphony Orchestra and the Warren Symphony Orchestra.

Berean Baptist Church in Belleville has been reserved for the couple's wedding.

Childbirth classes will start

The Plymouth Childbirth Education Association will sponsor a series of classes in the Lamaze childbirth method, to be held weekly in two nearby locations.

Classes will start at 7:30 p.m. Monday, at Garden City Osteopathic Hospital, 6145 Inkster Road, Garden City. And at 8 p.m. Dec. 20 at St. John's Episcopal Church, 555 South Wayne Road, Westland.

The classes are taught by

Pork for calorie counters

One of the greatest areas of misinformation about meat is the misconception concerning the calorie content of pork. Research shows that many cuts of pork are just as low in fat as similar cuts of beef and lamb.

Women of note subject of St. Johns book

In this era of "women's lib," the distaff side of the world has been spotlighted and all too often in rather an unflattering "glare."

Adela Rogers St. Johns, a woman of no small note herself, writes about some women she considers noteworthy in her new book, "Some Are Born Great." Among those included are Carry Nation, Amelia Earhart, Judy Garland, Mother Cabrini, Bess Truman and Rachel Carson.

The semi-biography should make for interesting reading come some of those cold winter nights we're anticipating. But if non-fiction is not your cup of tea (which is always nice with a good book) then search through the shelves at the Belleville Library and see what else you might get caught up in.

If, during this rather hectic pre-holiday season you want to lose yourself in that fictional world so many writers provide, here's a listing of what's new.

FICTION
"Rosie" by M. Costantin. Rosaline struggles to regain control over her life after its order is shattered by her husband's death from cancer.

"The Dark Beneath the Pines" by Anne Eliot. Andrea returns to the summer camp of her childhood to find her uncle and the missing half million dollars that would save the family camp.

"The House on the Left Bank" by Velda Johnston. Martha Hathaway, an American living in Paris at the time of the Franco-German War, searches for her mother's murderer.

"The Toff and the Sleepy Cowboy" by John Creasey.

"The Fortunate Miss East" by Laurence Meynell. Miss East, an Edwardian "woman with a past," comes to the peaceful village of Brightsea seeking seclusion.

"Don Juan McQueen" by Eugenia Price. Novel of the life of John McQueen, friend of Washington, Jefferson and Lafayette who sided with the Spanish in the Georgia-Florida dispute.

"The Saffron Summer" by Margaret Summerton. After her mother's death, Claudine's uncle persuades her to return to the family estate where she becomes a pawn in a bitter struggle revolving around the whims of an old woman and the inheritance of the estate.

CITED IN CHICAGO — Belleville's contribution to the March of Dimes, Michelle Pysnik (right), was recently in Chicago for a National Foundation conference where she was given the National Award for Outstanding Youth Volunteer. Michelle with assistance from her community raised over $12,000 for the March of Dimes which won her the honor of being named 1975 Miss March of Dimes for the Metropolitan Detroit Chapter. She has served as the representative of the chapter throughout 1975 appearing in their behalf at many functions and ceremonies. Michelle met Tammy Patterson (center) the 1976 March of Dimes National Poster Child at the regional conference and also Judy Cotton (left), youth coordinator for the Detroit chapter.

Luncheon with Santa planned in Romulus

The Romulus Community Workers invite the public and especially the kiddies to come visit with Santa and Mrs. Claus on Dec. 13 at Beverly Elementary School, 35408 Beverly Rd., Romulus.

Youngsters will be able to do their Christmas shopping at Santa's Gift Shop where they will find items in a price range from 15 cents to $3. Handcrocheted articles, necklaces, aprons, house plants, Christmas decorations and baked good will be featured.

Cartoons and Christmas caroling will also be part of the afternoon activities scheduled from 12 noon to 4 p.m.

Send us your bridal information

Want to share that "special day" with those who are unable to be present, in person, for your wedding ceremony? We'll write the details of your wedding in story form for you - and at no charge - if you'll simply follow a few guidelines.

The Belleville Enterprise and Romulus Roman offer bridal questionnaires for you to fill out as well as engagement forms for announcing the "start of it all." These forms include all the pertinent questions involved with your marriage or betrothal.

Forms may be picked up at our office, 116 Fourth St., Belleville (we're in the old Township Hall) anytime during the week between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. We will also mail forms if a telephone request is made. Call Lee Smith, Suburban Living Editor, 697-9191.

August wedding planned

An August wedding is in the future plans of Dawn

Annette Olver and Dale Morton, both of Wayne.

The engagement of their daughter is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Roger Olver of John Street, Wayne. The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morton of Niagara Street, Wayne.

Her fiancé is employed with Servomation Corp. in Romulus.

MISS OLVER

World's eating habits

In France, breakfast is usually a croissant and coffee; in Holland, add a piece of see-through cheese (it's cut so thin); in Poland, a piece of Polish sausage. It's prosciutto and figs in Italy, eggs and bacon in England, and believe it or not, dried seaweed and fish to match in Japan. In America, cereal is popular at the morning meal. To make sure you're getting the right breakfast, full of vitamins, try a cereal breakfast which includes fortified oat flakes.

Of holiday greetings

O'Neil urges prompt mailing

Postmaster R. J. O'Neil of Belleville is urging immediate mailing of all domestic Christmas cards and parcels and encouraging customers to help expedite delivery by using ZIP Codes.

"Although most of the suggested mailing dates for domestic holiday mail have passed, all cards, gifts and other holiday mail deposited in accordance with our local standards and bearing ZIP Codes will be delivered by Christmas Eve," he said.

"In view of the excellent cooperation received from early mailers so far this year, we are confident that holiday mail deposited immediately will be delivered in time for Christmas," O'Neil added.

Earlier this year, the Postal Service reminded the public to mail as early as possible and announced a series of recommended mailing dates to ensure delivery in time for Christmas.

The last of the suggested dates for mailing domestic greeting cards with the 48 "mainland" States and Alaska and Hawaii is Monday.

"In extending our commitment to make every possible effort to deliver all holiday mail on time, even though most suggested deadlines now are past, we hope the general public will respond by depositing their mail at once, if they already have not done so," Postmaster O'Neil said.

CARE seeks contributions

During the holiday season residents will be counting their blessings and sending greetings to those specially dear to them.

Traditionally, too, at holiday time thoughts reach out to the wider circle of humanity everywhere, and compassion for those less fortunate than ourselves is a key symbol of the deepest, finest human qualities, according to one worldwide assistance organization.

Around the world the daily lot of millions of men, women and children is hunger, disease, despair. On their own, they struggle vainly to break the vicious cycle of poverty. But, through CARE, residents can extend a lifeline for humanity, for these poorest of the poor in Africa, Asia, Latin America and the middle East, a spokesman said. A donation can feed hungry children, give families medical assistance and tools and knowhow to grow more food and to work towards becoming self-supporting, the spokesman added.

The holiday season CARE Food Crusade appeals to people to help feed 27 million fellow humans this coming year, mostly children. At preschool health centers and schools, regular feedings will combat malnutrition, enabling children to grow into productive adults. To extend this aid CARE requires $8,000 in individual donations. Overseas governments cover operating costs and the U.S. Government supplies Food-for-Peace farm commodities, so donations add value is stretched. For example, $5 gives nutritious food to 270 children; $10 gives 3,600 children cups of high-protein beverage, and $25 provides 375 pounds of food, the spokesman said.

From India, a child wrote: "It is with CARE food at school I strive out of my hungry stomach."

To help millions of children and families to strive for a better life, residents can mail holiday contributions to CARE Food Crusade, 660 First Avenue, New York, (N.Y.) 10016, or CARE's regional office, Guardian Building, Detroit 48226.

Hunter garners 1st buck

An 8-year veteran of Michigan's hunting grounds has bagged his first buck.

Joe Nowicki, 34, of 29231 Northline Road, Romulus shot his first deer — an 8-point, 175-pound specimen — while on a hunting trip with his family near Three Rivers.

The hunter was on a Thanksgiving holiday with his wife, Bonnie, and their three children — Joey, Cheri and Rocky, at Fisher Lake near Three Rivers.

Children invited to party

Sumpter Township children are invited to the Sumpter Goodfellows Christmas party.

Financed with proceeds from the annual Sumpter Township Goodfellow Drive, the party will be held at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 17 at the SSCC Hall in Sumpter.

For Bicentennial

Yule tree chopping: Recapture 'spirit'

Western Wayne County residents, who want to begin the Bicentennial celebration early, can relive a part of Michigan history by cutting their own Christmas tree at one of 74 "choose and cut" farms, listed with the Automobile Club of Michigan this year.

"When Michiganians cut their Christmas trees years ago, it was one of the biggest events of the holidays," said Joseph Ratke, Auto Club touring manager.

"Entire clans hiked or rode sleighs into nearby forests, searching for that perfect tree to grace their homes. Today more persons each year are renewing that custom by visiting a 'cut-your-own' operation," Ratke said.

The farms sell several types of trees with prices ranging from $20 for Scotch pines, to $20 for blue spruce and Douglas firs. Many sell by cost-perfoot, varying from 75 cents to $3.40 per foot for trees up to six feet. Some farms feature trees up to 20 feet in height for churches and other groups.

One local farm offering residents a chance to cut their own Christmas tree is Boughan's Tree Farm in Belleville. The farm is located at 15851 Martinsville Road. Open daily, the facility has about 5,000 trees, selling for about $6 each. For further information on the place call 699-5062.

As their popularity grows, an increasing number of farms each year offer free wagon or sleigh rides to and from the trees, plus popcorn balls, beverages and candy for children and even visits by Santa Claus on weekends, Ratke said.

Auto Club suggests that if you're planning to cut your own tree this Christmas:

—Bring a saw, if going on a weekend. Although most farms lend saws, they may run out. Don't bring an axe, since they are not allowed on most farms.

—Be sure of your choice before cutting, then saw close to the ground. The longer the trunk, the easier it is to mount in a stand.

—While many growers will bail your tree to protect it for the ride home, always bring a rope for tying it in place. Remember to place the tree's base at the front of your car when putting it on the roof to prevent wind-broken branches.

—Store your tree by placing it in a bucket of water in a covered area warm enough so the water does not freeze.

—Even if you've just cut your tree, remove an inch or two of the trunk before placing it in a stand so it will absorb water readily. —Always keep the stand filled with water. Don't mix in sugar, as it may crystallize and keep moisture from the tree. Good substitutes for sugar are several commercial varieties of liquid tree food.

Men-gals take to ice

Male chauvinists and women's libbers in Romulus can go out and root for their kind Saturday during the Romulus Hockey Association's charity hockey game.

Scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at the Ice Box Arena on Telegraph Road in Taylor, the hockey game will pit coaches and fathers of players in the Romulus Hockey Association against the Dearborn Cougars, Michigan's all-women state champion hockey team.

Admission is 75 cents per person with tickets available at the Romulus City Hall, the Romulus Recreation Department or from Jerry Sweda of the Hockey Association.

Sweda can be reached by calling 941-2037.

Local television personalities Kelly Burke and Ray Lane will officiate the male-female competition on ice.

Proceeds from the game will finance hockey association activities during the year.

Goodfellows still seek contribution

Although the Belleville Van Buren Goodfellow newspaper sale drive is completed, persons interested in insuring that no child goes without a Christmas still can donate funds.

Jerry Maton, Goodfellow chairman, will accept checks in care of the Belleville-Van Buren Goodfellows at his home.

Maton lives at 12175 Beckley Road, Van Buren Township.

Last year, the Goodfellows raised more than $3,000 to help the needy in Van Buren and Belleville. This year they would like to surpass the goal.

Hot dinners are available for senior citizens

Hot noon meals and other services for senior citizens now are available in Taylor.

Serving began today at the Senior Citizens high-rise apartments, 15270 Plaza S. Dr., Taylor.

The meals are served Monday through Friday as part of the federally-funded Out-Wayne County Nutrition Project, a program of the Wayne County Office on Aging.

The program also will provide social services in the fields of recreation, transportation, health screening, legal aid and information and referral.

Persons aged 60 and over and their spouses are eligible. A contribution of 50 cents is being requested for the meal, although it is not mandatory.

Expansion of the project was made possible by $579,014 federal grant bringing the total number of nutrition sites maintained by the county government in areas outside Detroit to 16. The grant will finance the program through September 1976.
